The Promoter Selling Shareholders shall reimburse any Indemnified Party for all reasonable expenses (including any legal or other expenses and disbursements) actually incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with investigating, disputing, preparing or defending any such action or claim, whether or not in connection with pending or threatened litigation to which the Indemnified Party may become subject, provided that such expenses are incurred or paid by the Promoter Selling Shareholders, solely in relation to the indemnity to be provided by the Promoter Selling Shareholders under this Section 13.2.

- 13.3 In case any proceeding (including any investigation by any Governmental Authority) is instituted involving any person in respect of which indemnity may be sought pursuant to Sections 13.1, and 13.2, the Indemnified Party shall promptly notify the person against whom such indemnity may be sought (the “Indemnifying Party”) in writing, provided that the failure to notify the Indemnifying Party shall not relieve such Indemnifying Party from any liability that it may have under this Section 13. The Indemnifying Party, at the option and upon request of the Indemnified Party, shall retain counsel satisfactory to the Indemnified Party to represent the Indemnified Party and any other persons that the Indemnifying Party may designate in such proceeding and shall pay the fees and disbursements of such counsel related to such proceeding. In any such proceeding, any Indemnified Party shall have the right to retain its own counsel, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of the Indemnified Party unless: (i) the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party have mutually agreed to the retention of such counsel, (ii) the Indemnifying Party has failed within a time to retain counsel satisfactory to the Indemnified Party, (iii) the Indemnified Party has concluded that there may be legal defenses available to it that are different from or in addition to those available to the Indemnifying Party, or (iv) the named parties to any such proceedings (including any impleaded parties) include both the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party and representation of both parties by the same counsel would be inappropriate due to actual or potential differing interests between them. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Indemnifying Party shall not, in respect of the legal expenses of any Indemnified Party in connection with any proceeding or related proceedings in the same jurisdiction, be liable for the fees and expenses of more than one separate firm (in addition to any local counsel) for all such Indemnified Parties and that all such fees and expenses shall be reimbursed as they are incurred. In the case of any such separate firm, such firm shall be designated in writing by the Managers. The Indemnifying Party shall not be liable for any settlement of any proceeding effected without its written consent, but if settled with such consent or if there be a final and binding judgment for the plaintiff by a court of competent jurisdiction, the Indemnifying Party shall indemnify the Indemnified Party from and against any loss or liability by reason of such settlement or judgment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if at any time an Indemnified Party shall have requested an Indemnifying Party to reimburse the Indemnified Party for fees and expenses of counsel as contemplated earlier in this Section 13.3, the Indemnifying Party shall be liable for any settlement of any proceeding effected without its written consent if (a) such settlement is entered into more than 30 (thirty) days after receipt by such Indemnifying Party of the aforesaid request and (b) such Indemnifying Party shall not have reimbursed the Indemnified Party in accordance with such request prior to the date of such settlement. No Indemnifying Party shall, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, effect any settlement of any pending or threatened proceeding in respect of which any Indemnified Party is or could have been a party and indemnity could have been sought hereunder by such Indemnified Party, unless such settlement includes an unconditional release (present and/or future) of such Indemnified Party from all liability or claims that are the subject matter of such proceeding and does not include a statement as to an admission of fault, culpability or failure to act, by or on behalf of the Indemnified Party.
- 13.4 To the extent the indemnification provided for in this Section 13 is unavailable to an Indemnified Party, or is held unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction is insufficient in respect of any Loss referred to therein, then each Indemnifying Party under this Section 13, in lieu of indemnifying such Indemnified Party, shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such Indemnified Party as a result of such Losses (as applicable) (i) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by the Company and/or the Promoter Selling Shareholders on the one hand and the Managers on the other hand from the Offer or (ii) if the allocation provided by Section 13.3 (i) above is not permitted by Applicable Law, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits referred to in Section 13.3 (i) above but also the relative fault of the Company and/or the Promoter Selling Shareholders on the one hand and of the Managers on the other hand in connection with the statements or omissions that resulted in such losses, claims, damages or liabilities, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative benefits received by the Company and the Promoter Selling Shareholders on the one hand and the Managers on the other hand in connection with the Offer shall be deemed to be in the same respective proportions as the net proceeds from the Offer (before deducting Offer expenses but after deducting Managers’ fees and commissions) receivable by the Company and the Promoter Selling Shareholders and the total fees (excluding expenses and taxes) received by the Managers, bear to the gross proceeds of the Offer. The relative fault of the Company and/or the Promoter Selling Shareholders on the one hand and of the Managers on the other hand shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or disclosure or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact or disclosure relates to information supplied by the Company, or its Affiliates, or their respective directors (if applicable), officials, employees, representatives, advisors, consultants or agents, or the Promoter Selling Shareholders, as applicable, or by the Managers, and the Parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission. The Managers' obligations to contribute pursuant to this Section 13.4 are several and not joint.

- 13.5 The Parties acknowledge and agree that it would not be just or equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 13.4 above were determined by pro rata allocation (even if the Managers were treated as one entity for such purpose) or by any other method of allocation that does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in Section 13.4. The amount paid or payable by an Indemnified Party as a result of the losses, claims, damages and liabilities referred to in Section 13.1 and 13.2, shall be deemed to include, subject to the limitations set forth above, any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with investigating or defending any such action or claim. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 13, none of the Managers shall be required to contribute any amount in excess of the fees (excluding expenses and taxes) received by each Manager pursuant to this Agreement and/or the Engagement Letter, and the obligations of the Managers to contribute any such amounts shall be several. No person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.
- 13.6 The remedies provided for in this Section 13 are not exclusive and shall not limit any rights or remedies that may otherwise be available to any Indemnified Party at law or in equity and/or otherwise.
- 13.7 The indemnity and contribution provisions contained in this Section 13 and the representations, warranties, covenants and other statements of the Company and the Promoter Selling Shareholders contained in this Agreement shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of any (i) termination of this Agreement or the Engagement Letters, (ii) investigation made by or on behalf of any Indemnified Party or by or on behalf of the Company or its officers or Directors or any person Controlling the Company or by or on behalf of any of the Promoter Selling Shareholders, or (iii) acceptance of and payment for any Equity Shares.
- 13.8 Notwithstanding anything stated in this Agreement, the maximum aggregate liability of each Manager (whether under contract, tort, law or otherwise) shall not exceed the fees (excluding expenses and taxes) actually received (excluding any pass through) by such Manager for the portion of services rendered by it under this Agreement and the Engagement Letters.
